Subject: RE: Pechiney - PCB Data and Figures

Hello Linda:

How are you doing?

What is going on with the City's purchase and sale of a portion of the Pechiney property?

We just received the figures that we had requested and the City had indicated to us they were closing the purchase /sale by mid June 2015. Do you have any update on the City's and Pechiney's plans?

I look forward to your reply and thank you for your courtesies.

Sincerely,
Carmen

Subject: Pechiney - PCB Data and Figures

Hi Nathan,

Please find attached the data file (Total PCBs and Aroclor 1254) with the all the pre-2013 and 2103-2014 soil data for the Pechiney site, along with the updated figures for the Phase I Area and the Phase V Area as noted below.

- For the Phase I Area

For the Phase V Area

There are no Pre-underground demolition samples for this area nor soil sample below 15 feet

Hard copies of the Figure will follow next week.

Note, the figures for the Phase II and Phase III/IV/VI Areas are in progress, and we'll forward as soon as they are ready.

Thank you, Linda
